In London, on the 4th, consols for money were sold at 88 7-8 to 89; U. S. five-twenties 66 3-4a 64 1-2.

LATEST BY MAIL.

We compile the following from papers received this evening:

GOVERNOR BROWNLOW ROBBED BY HIGHWAYMEN.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 10.—Governor Brownlow and Colonel Maynard were robbed on the Franklin pike yesterday, some ten miles from this city. They were driving carelessly along the road when three highwaymen suddenly presented themselves. One seized the horse, while the others presented pistols to their heads, and demanded their money. As no choice was given, Governor Brownlow handed over five hundred dollars and his watch. They were then permitted to proceed.

An important suit—the United States vs. the Southern Methodist Publishing House—was dismissed yesterday, the defendant paying costs.

CRIME IN HIGH LIFE IN CANADA.

The Hamilton Times, Upper Canada, in the following paragraph gives an intimation of a deplorable state of society in Canada—the result of official corruption and of the deference paid in British dependencies, as at home, to a spurious aristocracy:

Among the prisoners now in custody at London, on a charge of burglary, are a son of a late Mayor of Hamilton, a son of a late sheriff of Middlesex, a son of a present Superior Court Judge, and a son of a Postmaster. We may add that the fifth is a son of a Manager of a bank, that the remaining prisoner is respectably connected, and all of them are young men whose habits for several years past have been such as to bring them under the watchful attention of the police.

THE DEBT OF TEXAS—TEXAS NOT TO BE REPRESENTED IN THE NEXT CONGRESS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 10.—Ex-Governor Pierce, of Texas, says that the friends of Provisional Governor Hamilton say that he will hardly call the State to meet in convention before the middle of January next, and the citizens of Texas believe that Texas will not be represented in the next session of Congress. The debt contracted by Texas amounts to nine millions of dollars. The people on the Rio Grande state that those who accompanied General Breckinridge from Europe to Canada have arrrived at San Antonio. General Breckinridge has announced his determination to remove to Texas, should President Johnson pardon him. He ascribes the late turning point in the Confederate fortunes to the removal of General Joseph E. Johnston from the command of the Confederate army before Atlanta. All the Federal negro troops have left the Rio Grande.

FROM LOUISIANA—RESTORATION OF THE CIVIL GOVERNMENT.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.—General Canby has issued an order turning over to the authorities all the sanitary regulations that have been held by the military since 1862; also, resigning all control over the State levees, the work on them and the collection of the tax to keep them repaired. He is also withdrawing the provost marshals in the parishes, except in certain cases, and is also stopping the issue of charity rations to persons unconnected with the army.

General Fullerton leaves the fixing of the amount of wages between freedmen and their employers for the next year to be regulated by the law of supply and demand.

SOUTH CAROLINA ADOPTS THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 13.—The constitutional amendment abolishing slavery passed both houses of the South Carolina Legislature to-day with but little opposition, after which the Legislature adjourned until the 25th inst.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND RUMORS.

It is said that Gen. Sickles is to relieve Gen. Gillmore at Charleston. According to the correspondent of the Herald, the government wanted a man there of "enlarged and liberal conception."

Kilpatrick, the famous raider, who has been appointed Minister to Chili, is said to be "instructed by the Secretary of State to substantially advocate the Monroe doctrine abroad."

President Johnson has directed the body of Capt. Wirz to be interred in the penitentiary yard, next to that of Mrs. Surratt.

The Washington Republican says it has the positive assurance of Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, that he will not enter upon the roll of the House or call the names of the representatives of the late rebellious States, but will leave them to present their credentials to the House.

State Items.

Thirty or forty bales of cotton were destroyed by fire, on the line of the Wilmington and Manchester railroad, a day or two since.

T. C. Fuller, Esq., has been elected to Congress from the third district.

Energy in business, says the Newbern Times, is the thing to bring success. Our principle shipping houses here, Whitford, Dill & Co., and W. H. Oliver & Co., realizing the truth of this, are plying their energies in a way that must tell to advantage, not only in their cash accounts, but in the growth and prosperity of business in our midst. When a vessel, carrying three or four hundred tons, can be discharged and reloaded in two days, as the Charles Benton was, on Friday and Saturday, by Whitford, Dill & Co., we may know that the agents are in earnest.

The President and Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon road have returned from the North, and, we are pleased to learn, have been successful in making arrangements with the government, as well as with other parties, which will enable the company to complete necessary repairs, as well as to operate their road efficiently.

The new President, Mr. Bridges, is evidently the man for the occasion—active, energetic, persevering and indefatigable, and well sustained by Col. Fremont, General Superintendent.

The meeting of stockholders of the First National Bank of Newbern was quite full on Saturday, and an organization was effected by electing the following gentlemen as directors: D. Heaton, Geo. Allen, J. M. Satterlee, Wm. P. Moore, J. T. Hough, Moses Patterson, E. Hubbs, Samuel Blagge, J. Leland.

Friday morning, at Wilmington, a man by the name of Henry Howard, from Smithville, N. C., very suddenly died, it is supposed from blows or kicks inflicted by R. Bate. Coroner J. C. Wood, as soon as he was notified of his death, empanneled a jury and proceeded immediately to hold an inquest upon the body.

The following verdict was rendered by the jury: "The jury find that the deceased, Henry Howard, came to his death by rupture of the bladder, caused by some external violence, inflicted in some manner unknown to the jury, in or at the store of R. Bate, situated on the south side of Market street, between Front and Second streets, in the town of Wilmington, on or about 2 P. M., on Tuesday November 7th, 1865."

It seems that Howard entered the store of Bate on last Tuesday afternoon, and, acting in a manner very unbecoming a gentleman, was ejected by the latter, when he is supposed to have received the internal injuries from which he died. No one else, it appears, was present at this occurrence.

Bate is still in prison, and will have a further hearing before Squire Conoley.

Burglars are said to abound in Wilmington.

The following persons have been appointed chiefs of post offices at the points specified:

Van Hook's Store, Person, Mrs. M. J. Van Hook.

LETTER FROM HON. A. H. STEPHENS.—The following letter from Hon. A. H. Stephens, in which he positively declines being a candidate for Governor, is from a Georgia paper:

CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., Nov. 4th, 1865.

Messrs. Stockton & Co.—Gents: I see in your paper of to-day a reference to a late article in the Macon Telegraph, expressing a preference for me as between candidates for Governor. I drop you this line to request you to state that I don't wish my name used in connection with that office in any way. I have so written to the editor of that paper, and to others who have expressed themselves in favor of my being a candidate for Governor. I wish it generally and immediately known that I positively decline to allow the use of my name in that connection, and trust that no one under the circumstance who regards my feelings will disregard my wishes in this particular.

Yours truly,
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

—The War Department has ordered that the name of Fort Runyon shall be changed to Fort Kilpatrick, in honor of that distinguished soldier, who has just won his greatest battle.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

AFTER HIM SHARP.—The Standard understands that a couple of ladies arrived in this city a day or two ago in search of a gay deceiver in uniform, whom they accused of loving, if not wisely, at least two well. It seems he had married one of the ladies in Maine before the war, and afterwards, having joined the army, he tied up with the second in Baltimore. The first spouse heard of the second, visited her in Maryland, found the report true, and the injured pair came on to Raleigh, arriving just in time to break up an arrangement on the part of the gay Lothario to add another to the list of his victims.

The truth is, no lady should venture to marry any stranger except upon the most indubitable ascertainment of his position and character. In fact, we question the safety and know the impropriety of ladies entertaining or receiving persons of whom they know nothing. We care not from what quarter a man may come, unless endorsed by circumstances or the certification of parties known to those whose acquaintance is sought, he should not be welcomed to the social circle. Refinement demands such policy and no true gentleman would, if he could, have such safe-guards of innocence disregarded.

NOW'S THE TIME.—It is said that this city has never had an efficient fire department. Whether the statement made to us be true or false, there is a growing necessity for such an organization and it is the part of wisdom to have it in operation. We hear that the hose owned by the corporation is, if not worthless, in bad condition; that the cisterns are dry as powder and out of repair, and thus we find some of the reasons why the rates of insurance on property have run up to present figures. Of course no combination could be made to constitute an effective fire department without apparatus and adequate supplies of water, but a body of men can be organized who, in cases of emergency, would cooperate and work systematically.

We respectfully suggest to the city commissioners, until hose and other necessary things can be procured, that some one be appointed chief of the fire department and requested to enroll a company or companies, to be organized with such regulations as the membership may decide to be best. Those who witnessed the confusion at the fire a week or so since, will fully endorse our suggestions.

SENSIBLE FASHION.—A new fashion has just been inaugurated among the ladies and it is one of the few late introductions in dress that it is to be admired—the wearing of reasonably short skirts. It is true the filthy trailing skirts were admirable as a municipal arrangement, as they completely rivaled the previous plan of having street sweepers and almost destroyed the vocation of scavengers. But in spite of this, the recently prevailing fashion is about to be discarded for neat, clean, short ones. The ladies who have the advance in this revolution of mode among us, are entitled to admiration and credit for their good sense and taste. There is a modest medium for street dressing—not too low at top nor too high at the foot—which we should be pleased to see universally practised here. Extravagance ought to be repudiated.

A MATTER OF BEAT.—In our market, recently, beef has been sold at from six to seven cents per pound from country carts. This price evidently remunerates those who sell and yet we hear that the butchers retail the same kind and quality of meat at 15 and 20 cents. The difference between the two classes of sellers shows one of two things: heavy loss to those who part with it by the quarter or immense, unreasonable profits for those who retail it. We make the comparison in the hope of inducing a more liberal scale of prices for persons who are necessitated to purchase in second hands. It is high time that all classes of tradesmen were returning to first principles and becoming content with reasonable profits.

BAD ARRANGEMENTS.—The mystery with respect to the delay in the receipt of letters and papers on the routes from Wilmington and Newbern to this point, is at least partially solved. The arrangement of the schedule appears to be such as to forbid the forming of connections at Goldsboro. We sincerely hope that those who control the matter may find it convenient to make such alterations in the time tables as will remedy the derangement referred to. The public convenience here seems to require such a change.

RE-ESTABLISHED.—The post office at Carey, in this county and a short distance from the line of the North Carolina railroad, west, has been re-established and A. H. Dowell appointed postmaster. By looking among the State news, it will be seen that the postal system within North Carolina is being rapidly reconstructed.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Read the new advertisements:

Griffing & Co.—Agricultural Warehouse, New York.

B. P. Williamson & Co.—Iron, Leather Belting, Timothy seed, &c.

WITH all our facilities in point of transportation in the direction of Norfolk, Wilmington and Newbern, the supply of oysters reaching this market is not equal to the demand.

AUCTION Bills, Business Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, and in fact printing of all kinds done at the PROGRESS OFFICE with promptness and in the best style of the art; and as our facilities for printing are more extensive and better than those of any other establishment in the State, at lower rates than the same can be done elsewhere.

TALLOW DIPS.—There is a probability that an extraordinary demand for tallow dips will soon exist here. A merchant on Fayetteville street was making inquiry for four boxes, night before last, with which to see the gas burn. That same "old coon" of a darkey has been again looking into the furnace.

SEE the advertisement of W. R. Smith & Co., of the Southern Field and Fireside Publishing House, who wish to buy or lease a building suitable for their business, or lease or buy a central vacant lot.

—Hon. J. L. Manning, who has been elected United States Senator from South Carolina, was Governor of that State in 1852, but has held no political post of distinction since that time. He was a delegate to the Chicago Convention which nominated Buchanan, and a member of the South Carolina Convention which adopted the ordinance of secession. Though he signed the ordinance, his heart was not enlisted in the movement, and he retired to private life after the Convention adjourned.

—"Whar," asked a renowned stump orator, who was running for the office of constable, "whar, my enlightened friends of the Sixty-sixth Militia district, was Andrew Jackson in the battle of New Orleans? Wur he thar? He wur. He wur ridin' up and down on a bobtail Arabian, a wavin' of a crooked sabre, up to his armpits in blood and mud, and a givin' of the British thunder; the genius of his country a holdin' of her segis over his head, cotton bales pavenecring in front to pertect him from every danger, and the American eagle, with the stars and stripes in his beak, a soarin' aloft in the blue empyrean, cryin' Hail Columbia!"

—The Farragut Court Martial on Saturday heard several witnesses in defence of Commodore Craven. Acting Ensign Bernard C. McGill testified that from what he had heard from the Spanish officers, the rebel ram Stonewall was too formidable to attack without instant destruction to the assailing vessel.

—One hundred females and twenty-four males were discharged from the Treasury Department, Wednesday, partly from lack of work, and partly to make vacancies for the soldiers. Similar discharges followed yesterday from General Leslie, Chief Paymaster of the Pay District of the East.

—Garrett Davis and Brutus Clay, of Kentucky, having sued Generals Palmer and Brisbane for abducting slaves, counter suits have been brought before the Freedmen's bureau against Davis and Clay, for holding blacks to labor without pay, in violation of the laws of the United States.

"Do you belong to this church, sir?" inquired a gentleman to a friend who was one of the heavy men of the town where the other was visiting, and who seemed much interested in the church where they had just been attending. "No, sir," replied the rich man, "quite the reverse, for the church belongs to me."

It appears from the Jamaica Colonial Standard, of October 16, that the British General Nelson, in command at Mozart Bay, orders every insurrectionist to be hanged, and that the British gunboat opened fire upon a collection of eight hundred women and children.

In Wisconsin the proposition to extend suffrage to negroes is defeated, according to indications, by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

—A collision recently took place on the Savannah river, by which the steamboat Savannah was sunk in twenty feet water.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, NOV. 16, 1865.

Growing Defiant.

Since the secession triumph at the late election in this State, we learn that in some sections disaffection is growing so defiant as to assert publicly that the Government dare not hang Jeff. Davis for fear of the consequences. And is it possible that more treasonable plots are hatching against the Government, and that another rebellion is in contemplation? Really, from these threats it would seem so.

We have no desire to have Jefferson Davis or any one else hung, but we trust that all the leaders of the rebellion will get justice. If he deserves death, there is no more reason why he should be spared than any other criminal; but if innocent, let him go. It is very sure that many who were ready to swear, when Sherman's hosts were upon them, that they never knew him, are now eagerly at work to save him. Secession was either a great crime or it was not—if a great crime, the leaders should be prosecuted as criminals and mock sympathy should cease; but if not a crime, let the amnesty extend to all the leaders, Davis included, and let the national authorities erect a monument to the memory of Wirz whose innocent blood they have shed. Wirz, has suffered death, and as all loyal men believe justly, and yet he has never been guilty of such crimes, or caused so much human suffering, as soil the skirts and blacken the soul of the head of the rebellion.

We would not allude to Davis, or express ourself as to the extent of his crimes, did not his partizans keep lyonizing him, even! to defying the Government to hang him. We suppose the Government will do its duty; at all events we hope so.

"We observe that a large vote was polled in Georgia against the repudiation of the war debt.—Notwithstanding President Johnson telegraphed that the debt must be repudiated, 117 members voted against it. There is more disloyalty in the South now than there was six months ago."

We find the above item in an exchange. We agree with our contemporary that there is much disloyalty in the South, but we do not agree that there is more now than there was six months ago; it has been here all the time, but a few months ago it crouched and snivelled at the feet of the victorious national forces, and now, as leniency and mercy has warmed it into life and the troops have been withdrawn, treason becomes bold and defiant. Whenever you hear a man, distinguished as a politician or noted as a "man of God," declare that he is for the Union, and qualify the declaration by a long rigmarole about sympathy with the South, is a Southern man, went with his State, and so on, and a few disparaging remarks about "red-mouthed Yankees," put it down that that man is a traitor.—We have many such all through the South, and they are organising to secure control of the Government; and whether they succeed or fail, it will not be a half dozen years before they will be plotting another rebellion for the overthrow of the Government and the re-enslavement of the blacks. All loyal men at the South, and elsewhere, look on all men who talk about their being honorably bound to make good the pledges of the rebellion, by paying rebel State debts or the redemption of other promises, as traitors to the Government of the United States, and such they are. There is much diloyalty in the South, but no more than there was six months ago, for it has been here all the time.

How they Regard it in the North.

We have never assailed Mr. Worth, and did not support Gov. Holden because we had any personal or political objection to the former gentleman, but we opposed his election because he was brought out and supported by secession leaders and disaffected factions; and because we knew that the defeat of Gov. Holden would have a bad effect in the North.

A gentleman of high position, and one that is well posted, writing us from New York on the 10th, says:

"I regret to see indications of a determination in North Carolina to throw Gov. Holden overboard, for Worth. How could he and Hanes so soon betray their master with a kiss? Our people regard this action as the plainest proof of a backsliding disposition, and will subject North Carolina to suspicion or insincerity, or something worse."

Now, if such were the feelings of the people of the North before they knew that Gov. Holden was defeated, what will they be now that their fears are reduced to a certainty? We honestly believe that the result of the recent election will throw North Carolina back from one to two years in the work of restoration.

A Voice from Newbern.

The following telegram from the acting Mayor of Newbern is no doubt a fair expression of the ultra Union men of that town:

His Excellency Gov. Holden:

Dear Sir:—Accept the congratulations of all good and loyal citizens of Newbern that North Carolina will retain her loyal Governor by order of the President, and the will of all our loyal, Union citizens.

JOHN M. DAVIES, M. D.,
and Acting Mayor.

What do the recent elections in this State and other Southern States amount to? If the President will not recognize the Governors elected for Mississippi, South Carolina and North Carolina, will he be likely to recognize the Legislatures or Congressmen elected at the same time? We only ask for information.

American Union Commission.

Inquiry is often made of the Agent of the American Union Commission respecting the constitution and operations of that society. The following general statement on the subject may be of interest to those who are not personally acquainted with the work.

Its object is defined by the following fundamental article of its Constitution:

"The American Union Commission is constituted for the purpose of aiding and co-operating with the people of those portions of the United States which have been desolated and impoverished by the war, in the restoration of their civil and social condition, upon the basis of industry, education, freedom and Christian morality."

It consists of a Central Commission, having its office in New York City, with branches already organized in Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, Nashville, Richmond and other points. In its origin it had the sanction of President Lincoln; it now enjoys the cordial approbation of President Johnson; it receives from the War Department transportation and other facilities so far as is consistent with the public service: and in providing for refugees, it is in hearty co-operation with the Bureau for Refugees and Freedmen, who are still, as heretofore, dependent on voluntary contributions, through benevolent societies, for needful assistance.

Its first work evidently was to relieve immediate want by distributing food, clothing, &c. During the past twelve months it has given away to the very needy over a hundred thousand dollars worth, thus enabling many to resume the labors of peace more quickly, and probably saving not a few lives especially of children and the sick. To avoid expense it has often availed itself of the services of delegates of the Christian Commission, but on the disbanding of that body it has sent out its own agents.

It aims also to encourage a healthy emigration into this portion of the country. To this end information is desired as to the wants of any portion of the State and the inducements there offered to settlers. If in any community there is need of a farmer, a blacksmith, a mechanic, a merchant, a teacher or any professional man, it would be a favor if some person would report the facts fully to me, and I shall take pleasure in laying them before parties who think of moving their homes. The Commission has special advantages through its branches for recommending well-qualified teachers in any department. School-committees in different States are availing themselves of its services.

My own long employment as a teacher gives me a special interest in the work of education. Here in Raleigh the free-schools have been closed for some time, and many of the leading citizens have felt that it was not possible to support one at present except by contributions from abroad. To partially meet the existing want and give every one a chance to learn reading at least, an arrangement has been made with Mr. O. R. Burchard, who is known to the Commission as a gentleman well qualified to teach both in the Classics and in English studies, to instruct free of charge for one hour daily all who apply. The hour fixed at present is 3 P. M. so as not to interfere with his regular school, and to accommodate those children whose services are needed at home most of the day. It is not expected by any means to take this work out of the hands of the people, but it is hoped that as affairs become settled, a good public school will soon be established by the city, if not by the State.

The work of the Union Commission is not conducted in the interest of any denomination or political party. It invites the co-operation of all. And while the encouragement of education and immigration is now its prominent work, it will be ready to co-operate with the people in other ways as experience shall indicate.

As evidence of the esteem felt for the Commission, the following extracts are published from a letter of introduction by Gov. Holden, Rev. C. H. Wiley and others.

"I take pleasure in saying that I am acquainted with Rev. Fisk P. Brewer, the Agent of the "American Union Commission" in this State, and that I regard his work as eminently entitled to the approval and aid of our people generally.

W. W. HOLDEN.

I heartily join in the above commendation of the enterprise in which Rev. Mr. Brewer is engaged, and hope he will meet with the co-operation of our people.

C. H. WILEY.

My office for the present is in the book-store of Messrs. Branson & Farrar, where I may be found at 9 o'clock every morning when I am in the city.

FISK P. BREWER, General Agent, of the American Union Commission in N. C.
Raleigh, Nov. 14, 1865.

STATE TREASURER.—We learn that Gov. Holden has appointed Dr. Wm. Sloan, of Gaston county, State Treasurer, and that he will enter upon the discharge of his duties at once. Dr. Sloan is an ultra Union man, a gentleman of fine ability, and will, no doubt, make a good Treasurer. He was defeated for Congress in the Sixth Congressional District, the people of that region preferring to vote for a gentleman who had been in the rebel Congress and who cannot take the oath. Dr. Sloan, if elected, could have taken the oath.

E. B. FREEMAN, ESQ.—We most heartly endorse the following from the Standard relative to this gentleman, and sincerely trust that he may get the position to which he aspires:

"We are glad to learn that many of the friends of Mr. Edmund B. Freeman wish to present his name to the members of the next General Assembly for the position of Engrossing Clerk. Mr. Freeman's superior qualifications for the discharge of the duties of this office are so well known that we congraulate the members of the Legislature on being able to procure his services."

—A petition is being numerously signed by Boston ship-owners and business men, praying Secretary Seward to take no further steps to secure indemnity from England for the ravages of the Alabama and other pirates. They claim that the precedent would be worth more than the money, "the time cannot be far distant when the British Government will be a belligerent, and that whether against Russia, France or Brazil, or against its Indian subjects, the heroic Sepoys, or its oppressed Irish provinces, its next war, when we are at peace, will give us the same oppertunity in principle, and an hundred times greater in degree, which her merchants, mechanics and ship-builders have had to profit by our misfortunes."

—The Chattanooga Gazette says the great bridge that spans the Ogeeche River on the route of the Georgia Central Road, is now completed, and cars are passing over it.

The Balloon Wedding.

The last great sensation in New York, the balloon wedding, took place on Wednesday of last week according to arrangements. The parties were Miss Mary West Jenkins, of Northampton county, Va., the adopted daughter of Mrs. J. L. West, of St. Louis, and Dr. John F. Boynton, of Syracuse, N. Y., a man of some prominence in scientific circles, and a widower with two daughters. The wedding had been appointed to take place on Tuesday, but the indisposition of the bride caused its postponement until the next day. The aerial car cost five hundred dollars, and was most superbly decorated; being furnished with new Brussells carpet, damask cushions, lace curtains, and a blue silk canopy, making a tout ensemble at once rich and appropriate. Many thousand persons assembled to witness the ascension of the happy pair. We copy the following from the account of the Times:

ARRIVAL OF THE WEDDING PARTY.

Meanwhile the balloon steadily, though imperceptibly, fills, the elasticity is more apparent, and the time fixed for the departure is long past. Suddenly a stir is observable, and in a minute the large gate at the rear of the enclosure opens, and two covered carriages drive in. These vehicles are quickly surrounded by the people in the ground, while those in the balconies above become agitated and nervously excited. In a very short time the carriages approach the platform and the bridal party alight.—The bridegroom is a tall, well-featured man, and his bride is fully as good looking as rumor said she was. She appeared a little flurried, but evidently determined not to withdraw at the last stage of the proceedings. The bridal pair were accompanied by the Professor's family and friends, all looking well and no more flurried than the circumstances seemed to warrant.

It was a part of the programme that the marriage ceremony should be performed on the platform just previous to the start. The couple were quietly married in one of the parlors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel before leaving for the balloon. To some this was a disappointment, but the majority voted it "all right." A marriage contract, however, had been drawn up for signature while in the air, dated "Floating in Mid-Air."

THE START.

The air ship proved to be too weak in lifting power to carry all that were intended to go, so the wedding party dwindled down to the married couple, one of the bridesmaids, Miss Susie Boynton and Professor Lowe. As soon as the platform could be sufficiently cleared, a start was attempted, but the freight was still too heavy. A change was therefore made, and the bridesmaid stepped out, and the little daughter of Professor Boynton took her seat within the car.

This proved satisfactory, and at the word the balloon was cast off, slowly rising as she caught the rebound. A cheer was attempted, but was interrupted by the seeming danger of the balloon striking a flag-staff, and every tongue was hushed. The car collided, the flag-staff sprang beneath the blow, a sudden twist and all was clear. Then the crowds below cheered most lustily, the ladies waved their handkerchiefs, and so the start was complete.

The balloon rose, glided upward beautifully, and as the sea breeze caught its silken sides, the aerial craft bounded up almost instantly to a height of some thousand feet, when it again drifted, sailing slowly over the Central Park towards High Bridge. The setting sun gilded the globe of the balloon into splendor, giving it the appearance of a golden ball.

THE TROUSSEAU.

For the benefit of our lady readers we give the following description of the bridal costume and the tresseau. The whole was prepared under the supervision of Mme. Wintte, the well known modiste, and everything was in perfect taste.

The bridal costume was composed of ashes-of-rose poplin, trimmed with velvet a shade darker than the material, and velvet buttons. Hat and basquine to match. The bridesmaids' dresses are of lavender moire, trimmed with point lace and illusion puffed in. The bridal outfit comprises beautiful embroidered petticoats, both white and colored, costly lingerie of every description and a large number of rich dresses. Among the latter is a gold colored silk, trimmed with white uncut velvet and point lace.—Also, a fine white silver grenadin, trimmed with white silk ruched and puffings of illusion. A green moire antique, cut in the Pompadore style and trimmed with rich lace and bugles. A superb blue gros grains, trimmed with the new chantilly lace, designed in a border of leaves and flowers. A very heavy black silk, with velvet ornaments embroidered in white silk and steel beads. A red scarlet morning dress, ornamented with velvet flowers, and a morning dress of fine white nainsook trimmed with six little ruffles upon the skirt and body, made with a tucked yoke and trimmed square with two narrow ruffles. There was also an elegant white hat, with a long veil of white silk blonde, very slightly dotted with gold, and an opera cloak of white cloth bordered with goat's hair fringe.

RETURN OF THE BRIDAL PARTY.

After coursing an hour and a half through space and traveling a distance of twenty-five miles, the bridal party landed without a hitch toward event at Mount Vernon, Westchester county, at 5 o'clock, within fifteen minutes' ride of the New Haven rail road. The aerial tour, we are informed, was eminently satisfactory to all concerned. One of the incidents of the trip was the spectacle of the mirage. A phantom balloon, of mammoth size, was plainly visible more than forty miles away over the waters of the sound.

Professor Lowe has forwarded us a copy of the marriage contract, which we subjoin:

THE MARRIAGE CONTRACT.

Sacred compact of holy matrimony, solemnized above the clouds, floating in mid-air, within the jurisdiction and in accordance with the laws of the Empire State, this eighth day of November, A. D. 1865. Presenting ourselves, fully impressed with the sublime presence of God and the joyous Spiritual Beings of His creation, heartily appreciating Heaven's highest vouchsafed happiness, the blessed union of two souls in purity and glowing love, emanating from the eternal fountain of truth and wisdom, hence deriving some primitive conception of the magnitude of Deity-inspired unceasing humanity, endowed with powers and attributes evermore approximating Divinity, with assurances that uninterrupted progress remain dependent upon genial social relations, and possessing the approving sanction of cherished friends.

We, the contracting parties, John F. Boynton, M. D., of the city of Syracuse, State of New York, and Mary West Jenkins, of the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri, do now henceforth evermore give and devote ourselves each unto the other, and accept and receive each other in holy wedlock; and we solemnly and unreservedly avow and promise that we will love, honor and cherish each other as husband and wife during our whole existence; and, in the expressive language of Holy Writ, we hopefully pray, "What God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

Hereunto our respective signatures,

JOHN F. BOYNTON,
MARY A. JENKINS.

Witness: T. DeWitt Talmage, Susie H. Boynton, J. S. C. Lowe.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

The most reliable protection from fire now known.

DAILY PROGRESS.

THURSDAY, NOV. 16, 1865.

On the Admission of our Members to Congress.

Occasional, writting from Washington to the Philadelphia Press, says:

If the act of Congress of March 3, 1863, defining the duties of the Clerk of the House of Representatives in the preliminary organization of a new House, and the proceedings under it in the succeeding Congress, did not instruct that officer with sufficient clearness and emphasis, many of the claimants for seats in that body, and many of the people who have elected members from districts in the late seceded States, would save him all doubts in the premises.—President Johnson himself has been foremost, and and not always successful (at least so far as the ratification of the Constitutional amendment and the repeal of the State laws recognizing slavery are concerned) in counselling them to come to Congress with clean hands and pure hearts. But that good friend and teacher has not prevented the choice of many who cannot take the Congressional oath, nor induce that cordial and hearty response to his general policy which it deserved. It is just announced that Langdon, of the Mobile Advertiser, has been elected to Congress from Mobile, and that he cannot take the oath; and it is stated that Allen, the ex-Governor of Louisiana, now publishing an "Imperial" newspaper in the city of Mexico, is to be a candidate for his old post, with fair chances of success. These indications, taken in connection with the course of "Governor" Humphreys, of Mississippi, and the telegraph of President Johnson, prolonging the provisional existence of Governor Sharkey, of the same State, prove that these men do not themselves care to be admitted to share the obligations of the Government, and certainly that they are not qualified for them.—Why, in the face of such facts, should we seek to create dispute on a question which cannot seriously arise in the organization of the House?

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU for non-retention or incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder or Kidneys, disease of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys and Dropsical Swellings.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU FOR WEAKNESS ARISING FROM EXCESSES OR INDISCRETION.

The constitution once affected by Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmbold's Extract Buchu invariably does. If no treatment be submitted to, consumption or insanity may ensue.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

in affections peculiar to females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in chlorosis or retention, irregularities, painfulness or suppression of customary evacuations, ulceration or scirrhous state of the Uteras, Leucorrhœ, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudencies, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH, will radically exterminate from the system diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing those unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

in all cases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above disease, it is sure to affect his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

PHYSICIANS, PLEASE NOTICE!

We make no secret of the ingredients. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, and prepared in vacuo by H T HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist of sixteen years' experience in the city of Philadelphia, and which is now prescribed by the most eminent physicians, has been admitted to use in the United States army, and is also in very general use in State Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.
